

IRELAND TODAY:
Teaching Activities and Stimulating Materials on Irish Life & Culture for English as a Foreign Language Classes at Secondary Level and above
COURSE FOR EUROPEAN TEACHERS OF ENGLISH
DUBLIN, IRELAND 2024

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

These courses are designed for teachers of English to learners aged 11-19 and adults. Participants will have the opportunity:

- to discover 21st century Ireland and keep abreast of changes in Irish Life and Society and the Education System
- to gain a huge variety of new teaching ideas & stimulating materials which focus on Ireland Today
- to enhance their language skills
- to exchange ideas and develop links with teachers from different European countries

COURSE CONTENT:

1. Workshops on Teaching English as a Foreign Language: Focus on Ireland Today

Workshops are delivered by education professionals with many years' experience of training EU-funded teachers and a wealth of inspiring ideas to impart.

The workshops will look at present-day Irish life, culture and society and will provide teaching ideas for creative classroom activities relating to different aspects of Life in Ireland Today including:

- Facts and figures about life in Ireland
- The Irish Political System
- Varieties of spoken English in Ireland and Britain
- The Irish Language
- Irish humour
- Food and eating habits in Ireland
- Stereotypes of Ireland and the Irish
- Demographic changes in Irish society, the integration of migrants and intercultural education
- Modern youth culture
- Dublin in the 21st Century
- Northern Ireland

This is a highly practical course so participants will also have the opportunity to design their own classroom materials on life in Ireland to use with their learners. Participants will present and share the materials they produce. Detailed and creative feedback and guidance will be provided by the course tutor. There will be input on task-based learning for designing classroom activities, including project-based work. The use of popular films and documentaries will also be explored. By the end of the course, participants will have a range of materials which they will be ready to exploit with their learners.

LOCATION:

DUBLIN, Ireland: Population: 1,228,000

Famous for its cultural heritage and charming hospitality, Dublin is a lively city with a rich history, situated on the east coast of Ireland. Notable historic sights include its elegant Georgian squares, Dublin Castle, Christ Church Cathedral, the Book of Kells at Trinity College, Kilmainham Gaol and National Museums. Temple Bar is a busy riverside neighbourhood with live Irish folk music venues.

Close to the city are the beautiful hills and lakes of Wicklow Mountains National Park and attractive coastal scenery.

TOTAL PRICE:

1 Week: €1,447

2 Weeks: €2,195

The price includes:

(a) COURSE FEE: to include:

Full programme of study sessions and visits as itemised above.

NB. Participants are responsible for paying their own daily transport costs, including visits to schools. Any optional visits are not included in the price.

(b) HOST FAMILY ACCOMMODATION: to include:

Full board Accommodation with a local family (inclusive of registration fee): 7 or 13 nights (Teachers may request to be the only guest of their mother tongue or to stay in the same family as a colleague).

Host families are carefully selected and offer a friendly welcome and opportunities to chat and learn more about life in Ireland today. Participants often find that the experience of staying with a host family is one of the most memorable aspects of the course. Accommodation is in single rooms (unless participants request to share). Breakfast, packed lunch and evening meal are provided by the host family. (Food allergies, likes and dislikes are taken into account.)

Please note that many suitable residential areas are not within walking distance of the city centre and most host families are a bus ride from the city centre/tuition centre. A travel pass for all Dublin public transport costs €32 per week and can also be used to visit nearby coastal villages, beaches and cliffs.

Accommodation can be provided for family members (but not unaccompanied children) subject to availability. (Rates on request).

Alternatively courses between 16 June and 18 August:

Self-catering accommodation in a university residence in a central location - single bedroom with en-suite shower/ wc; no meals provided (inclusive of registration fee):

Total fee: 1 week course + 7 nights self-catering accommodation: € 1,479

Total fee: 2 week course + 13 nights self-catering accommodation: € 2,239

Participants wishing to arrange their own (hotel or self-catering) accommodation may pay a fee for the course only.

TRAVEL:

Participants are responsible for arranging their travel to and from Ireland. Express buses run from Dublin Airport to the city.

PAYMENT:

Full payment will be due 2 months before the course begins, or for teachers awaiting funding: as soon as the grant is received. No refund for cancellations within 5 weeks of arrival. Applicants are strongly advised to take out cancellation insurance. Postponement due to Covid-19 will be possible if necessary.

PREPARATION:

Participants are asked to complete a questionnaire before the course starts in order to ascertain their level of experience and training, the age groups and types of learners they teach and their expectations from the course. This helps trainers to respond to participants' individual needs and ensure that the most relevant areas are carefully integrated. Suggestions for optional pre-course reading are given.

EVALUATION:

At the end of the course teachers participate in a detailed evaluation of the course.

FOLLOW UP:

At the end of the course teachers are asked to consider which aspects of the course will be the most relevant to their own teaching situations. On their return they are invited to keep a record of how they have been able to utilise ideas gained on the course in their own classrooms.

They are encouraged to share their experiences with their fellow participants by email.

CERTIFICATE & ERASMUS+ VALIDATION:

A certificate of attendance (stating course content, learning outcomes and number of hours) will be provided and Erasmus+ documentation will be validated.
